Details:

The first address is on top of the mountain, where the Appalachian trail begins, it's about a half mile from the second address, these are the coordinates of the parking lot that you must park in, no parking on the road. If you turn onto route 183 from 78, you will get to the parking lot that you are supposed to park at first. If you're coming in the South Bound Lane of 183, then you will come across "Appalachian Trail - RT 183, Bethel, PA 19507" first, continue about another half mile to "40°31'37.1"N 76°13'24.8"W, Bethel, PA 19507."
